attack was made upon that portion of the army reorganization bill which confers upon the President discretionary power to increase the strength of the army to the maximum limit fixed by the bill. Mr. Bacon. of Georgia, began the attack, and Mr. Platt. of Connecticut, replying, maintained that discretionary power ought to be conferred upon the President, and expressed astonishment that anybody should extertain a fear that the power ever would be abused.

R-plying to Mr. Piatt, Mr. Bacon said he thought the country had falled upon an evil day when a Senator could rise in this chamber and express views power to increase the strength of the

which he regarded as dangerous to the liberties of the people and productive of one man power, and it was an evil day, truly, when the Senator reflected the attitude of the dominant party.

"The passage of this bill," declared the Georgia senator, "will mark an epoch in the United States. Senators may scoff, but it is, nevertheless, true that the passage of a bill by which the President shall control the size of the army, is a march toward empire. It is the evident purpose of the bill to climinate for all time the volunteer system from the military establishment of the country and create for all time a great standing arms. PENNYROYAL PILLS

FOR SKINNING CATS ALIVE.-W. S Curry, owner of a tanyard, was be'd for examination by Police Justice Brown, at Newport News, yesterday, on the technical charge of cruelty to on the technical charge of cruelty to animals in skinning cats alive. A score of families sppeared to complain against the tanner, who, they allege, has kid-napped more than fitty family pets in the neighborhood of the tanner's office. The missing cats are valued at from one dollar to one hundred dollars each. Curry acknowledges that he recently began tanning the skins of cats, but de-nies that the cats are skinned while they are yet alive. He also declares that he paid cash for every cat he has

T. C. DUI IN. Sec. SOMETHING NEW FOR GIBLS & BOYS

During the pest year "St. Nicheles" Magnaine, which has been for nearly thirty years the leading children's monthly magazine of the world (and now the only one), has introduced several new departments which have been extremely attractive and have greatly increased the circulation. One of these is "NATURE AND SCIENCE."

The editor of "Nature and Science" gives careful attention to every question asked by his young readers. The department contains interesting short articles, beautifully illustrated, telling of four-footed animals, birds, insects, water animals, plants and whatever pertains to Nature.

"ST. NICHOLAS LEAGUE" is an organization of those who read the magazine without dues, and it offers prises each month for the best drawings, photographs, poems, stories, pussies and pussie answers.

No one who does not see "St. Nicholas" can realize what an interesting magazine it is, and how caquisitely it is illustrated. Of literature it contains the choicoest, and in art it has never been suppassed by any grown folks' periodical. The new volume begins with November, 1900, and the subscription price is $3 a year.

Justice acts upon the legal maxim that ignorance of the law cannot be pleaded in mitigation of punishment. It is ignorance which causes so much womanly suffering. Ignorance of the requirements of womanly health; ignorance on the part of those who attempt to cure and fail, and ignorance of the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

THE VANDERBILT WEDDING .- The vealthiest man for his years in America. Mr. Alfred Gwynn Vanderbilt, aged 24, and possessing about fifty millions f dollars, will be married Monday at Newport to Miss Else French, the laughter of a New York banker and herself an heiress. A rehearsal of the wedding ceremony took place yesterdayin Newport, where queets have already been arriving for the event of next Monday. Three large summer houses at the famous resort have been re-opened especially for the occasion, and several special trains will be run from New York to take the hundreds of guests who are Mr. Alfred Gwynn Vanderbilt, aged take the hundreds of guests who are t attend the weeding A feature of this big social event is a promised sur-prise as to the destination of the couple for their non ymoon. None of those who have received invitations to the wedding are aware of the place where the honeymoon will be spent. One of the guesses is that Mr. Vanderbilt and his bride will, after the ceremony has his bride will, after the ceremony has been performed, repair to the Vanderbitt farm near Portsmouth, and there pass the honeymoon away from the ru-h and bustle of city life. It will not be known uotil Tuesday morning, aven by the wedding guests, where Mr. Vanderb it and his bride will spend the dirst weeks of their married life.
